

Chamber Coherence — Legal Notice & Terms

Last updated: 30 November 2025

This page provides general legal information, service terms, and disclaimers for Chamber Coherence.

1. Nature of the service

Chamber Coherence provides clarity, decision support, and operational/structural guidance for founders and leaders. It is not therapy, psychiatric care, or medical treatment, and should not be used as a substitute for professional advice in those domains.

2. No guarantees

Outcomes depend on many factors (including your context, inputs, and execution). We do not guarantee specific results, revenue, or business performance.

3. Client responsibility

You remain responsible for decisions made and actions taken. You should seek specialist advice (legal, tax, financial, medical, HR) where appropriate.

4. Booking, rescheduling, and cancellation

- Session length and format are described on the website or at point of booking.
- Rescheduling and cancellation terms should be confirmed in your booking confirmation email (or invoicing terms).
- If a written synthesis or deliverable is included, delivery timing is agreed case-by-case.

5. Fees and payment

Fees are as displayed on the website or quoted in writing. Payment terms (including invoices, deposits, and due dates) are provided at point of purchase or agreement.

6. Confidentiality

We treat client information as confidential and will not intentionally share identifiable client details without permission, except where required by law or to protect safety. Case studies may be anonymised where used.

7. Intellectual property

All content on this website (including text, frameworks, and visual assets) is owned by Chamber Coherence or licensed for use, unless stated otherwise. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, or create derivative works without prior written permission.

8. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Chamber Coherence is not liable for indirect, incidental, or consequential losses arising from use of the website or services. Nothing in these terms limits liability where it cannot be limited under applicable law.

9. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of Ireland, and courts in Ireland will have jurisdiction, subject to mandatory consumer protections that may apply.
